

Apply to be an Arts and Crafts Vendor at the 2018 California Poppy Festival™

Reserve a Space at This Year's Festival Today

Lancaster, CA. February 8, 2018 – Arts and Crafts Vendor applications are now being accepted for the 27th annual California Poppy Festival™, to be held April 21 and 22 at Sgt. Steve Owen Memorial Park.

The Poppy Festival is a great venue for those who draw; paint; sculpt; sew; make jewelry; work with wood, iron, or glass; or take beautiful scenic photography to display their artistic talents all while making some extra money.

The two-day event draws approximately 40,000 visitors each year; providing a great opportunity to display handcrafted items and network with other vendors, while enjoying the Antelope Valley's favorite springtime event. In addition to Arts and Crafts, the festival features live entertainment, a Farmers Market, carnival rides, exotic cuisine, and much more, in keeping with the Poppy Festival promise, "Always something new!"

The cost of a 12' by 12' Arts and Crafts Vendor booth space is only $200; a 12' by 24' is $265, and a 24' by 24' is $525. For additional information, please call (661) 723-6256 or 723-6077. Applications may be downloaded at www.poppyfestival.com.
